

PROJECT BUDGET

THE DANCEFLOOR

SEEN / SCENE — AN ENSEMBLE CHAT SHOW

Boiler Room Broadcast Lab #14 · Global Black Pride, Paris · September 2026

A two-hour live broadcast — an ensemble chat show about the Black queer dancefloor. The £10,000 Broadcast Lab grant covers the event in full; Boiler Room's production support and distribution are provided in kind.

BUDGET LINE	AMOUNT
Curator & host fees	£ 1,000
Editorial direction and the two-host pairing for the Broadcast Lab event
Artist fees	£ 2,500
Guest performers and contributors — paid above sector norm given the broadcast
Venue contribution	£ 500
Global Black Pride week partnership contribution, Paris
Access & production	£ 1,500
AV, projection, BSL interpretation, audio description, access provision
Travel & accommodation	£ 2,000
UK artists and team to Paris
Producer / editorial	£ 1,000
Broadcast Lab liaison and event production time
Print zine	£ 500
Design and production of the edition zine
Documentation & archive	£ 500
Recording and deposit into Seen / Scene's community-owned archive
Contingency	£ 500
5% — held against currency and travel variance for the Paris staging
TOTAL GRANT REQUEST	£10,000

Boiler Room production support & broadcast distribution	In kind
---	---------

All figures in GBP. Performers and creative workers are paid above sector norm. The grant funds the event and its broadcast in full — there is no double-counting with BLKOUT's other Seen / Scene funding applications, which cover separate work. The live recording lives on in Seen / Scene's community-owned archive: the cultural work gets two homes, not one ephemeral stream.